

PROGRAMME

Tony Slaven Doctoral Workshop
ABH Annual Meeting, Glasgow
29 June 2017

Our event will take place in the Archives Reading Room, part of the University of Glasgow's Archives and Special Collections, located at 13 Thurso Street, Glasgow, G11 6PE.

- 9.30-9.45 Welcome reception, introductions, and schedule for the day (coffee and tea available upon arrival)
- 9.45-11.00 Session 1: Management and Quality Control
Chaired by Dr. David Clayton
Nicola Forsdike (York): Nurturing operational competence: The role of individuals in developing and transmitting managerial practice in the British rail industry, 1962-2016
Yun Wu (Kyoto): How China introduced TQC from Japan: A case of Beijing Internal Combustion Engine Factory
Jing Han (York): Counterfeiting Strategies and Brand Protection in China
- 11.00-11.15 'comfort break'; refresh tea/coffee
- 11.15-12.30 Session 2: Business Relationships
Chaired by Dr. Roy Edwards
Bruna Dourado (Universidade Federal Fluminense): The performance of British merchants in steam-shipping companies in nineteenth-century Brazil
Adam Nix (Aston): The importance of social relationships within incidents of organisational wrongdoing: Insights from Enron and the California energy crisis
Rebekah McCallum (McGill): Between the Head Office and the Tea Estate: Professional correspondence of the James Finlay & Co. South Asian tea enterprise (1882-1982)
- 12.30-1.15 LUNCH (provided)
- 1.20-2.30 Session 3: Professional Development – Archives and sources in business history
Led by Ms. Kiara King, Dr. Roy Edwards, and Dr. Michael Anson
- 2.30-2.45 'comfort break'
- 2.45-4.00 Session 4: Banking and Financial Institutions
Chaired by Dr. Mitch Larson
Craig McMahon (Cambridge): Regulation, Short Term Credit and the Working Poor, 1870-2016
Nicolaas Strydom (Johannesburg): The Johannesburg Stock Exchange, 1887-1996: An Institutional History
Ian Jones (Liverpool): Accounts with Interest: Opening up the Archives of Barclays Bank
- 4.00-4.10 'comfort break'
- 4.10-5.00 Session 5: Professional Development – Publishing in business history journals
Led by Prof Stephanie Decker
- 5.00-5.15 Summing Up: a conclusion to the day