

Tony Slaven Doctoral Workshop Programme

Exeter, 2nd-3rd July 2015

All Thursday panels and sessions will be held in Syndicate Room B, second floor, Building: One, University of Exeter Business School, Streatham Campus, Exeter. Refreshments will also be served in this room. Lunch will be in Reed Hall, a ten-minute walk across the campus. The locations of the Friday sessions are indicated below – these are all in Building: One and the adjacent Xfi Building, University of Exeter Business School.

Thursday 2nd July
9.15-9.30	Welcome
9.30-11.00 Panel 1 Business and the State, Chair, Anis Zras	Christiane Chihadeh (Liverpool), An analysis of the relationship of British utility companies and the British government since 1945: an historical examination regarding their relationship with the aim to provide insights into the making of public policy Christopher Minton (Nottingham), The Business of Empire in Late Colonial Nigeria: Shell-BP and the Politics of Decolonisation, c. 1946-67 Zoi Pittaki (Glasgow), Facing a 'sibylline' authority: Views and facts regarding industrial development and the tax system in Greece, from the mid 1950s to the late 1980s
11.00.-11.30	Tea and coffee
11.30-12.30 Panel 2 Global Trade, Chair, Linda Arch	Dean Lymath (Nottingham), Fur Trade Adventurers: Entrepreneurship and the Hudson's Bay Company 1696-1821 Gwendolyn Lin (Norwegian University of Science and Technology), Fuelling the Global Trade Engine: Noble Group and The Rise of China, 1980-2015
12.30-2.00	Lunch: Woodbridge Suite, Reed Hall
2.00-3.30 Panel 3: Banks and Finance, Chair, Zoi Pittaki	Anis Zras (Portsmouth), The evolution of the Libyan accountancy profession and the colonial heritage (1551-1951) Henry Sless (Reading), A critical analysis of the visual representation of finance during the Victorian era Linda Arch (Reading), The Regulation of the London Clearing Banks, 1946 to 1979
3.30-4.00	Tea and coffee
4.00-5.30 Primary sources	Workshop run by Emily Buchnea (Newcastle), Bernardita Escobar (Corporacion de Estudios Para Latino America), Peter Miskell (Reading)
Evening	Join early arrivers from main conference for dinner, if you wish, at you own cost. Côte Restaurant, Cathedral Yard, Exeter

Friday 3rd July

9.30-10.45 PG Matters	Workshop run by Prof. Lynne Oats (University of Exeter Business School); Pearson Teaching Room, Building: One
10.45-11.00	Comments/discussion on workshop; Pearson Teaching Room, Building: One
11.00-11.45	Tea and coffee with main conference; Xfi Sustain Café, Xfi Building
11.45-1.00	Conference keynote - Prof. Grietjie Verhoef (University of Johannesburg; President, International Economic History Association, 'Latecomer Challenge: African Multinationals from the Periphery' Henderson Lecture Theatre, Xfi Building
1.00-2.00	Lunch with main conference; Xfi Sustain Café, Xfi Building